

Happy Holidays from Tigrett Corp.

A FEW HIGHLIGHTS FROM 2016

Who said anything about retiring? Antigoni and Everett Ladd swear they are still having fun (shown here at the Metropolitan Opera in NYC).

Tiffany Ramsburg's husband Josh and daughter Clark traveled with her to our program in Great Falls, MT—the first history-based leadership workshop for Josh and Clark!

Tara Wenzel donned WWII attire when she took our popular “Lessons from Eisenhower & D-Day” workshop on the road.

Rhonda Myers, intrepid director and videographer, added new movies to our Tika assisted in our massive file-cleanup (digitizing 30 years' worth of programs).

Teddy, a pretty mellow feline, seems to enjoy dressing up,

Web page and edited movie clips for workshops.

Rita Fahringer, always willing to try new things, took time from managing our finances to drive the test run of our new WWII tour of Gettysburg.

claiming people pay more attention then.

Joe Marshall took workshop attendees out of the classroom to demonstrate the power of handmade Indian bows and arrows.

A little music and laughter to get you in the holiday spirit.

WHAT TYPE OF LEADER ARE YOU — ELEANOR ROOSEVELT OR GEORGE PATTON?

Join us for a free halfday workshop in Gettysburg where you will learn how to build more effective work relationships by analyzing yourself and your coworkers' behavioral styles. Compare yourself to historic leaders Eleanor Roosevelt, George Patton, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.
