Celebrating 25 Years Together

March 20, 2014, Gettysburg, Penn. – A supportive and long-lasting partnership between James Getty with Tigrett Corp. and its owners, Everett and Antigoni Ladd, blossomed twenty-five years ago. In March 1989, James Getty made his first of more than 150 appearances as Lincoln at Tigrett Corp.'s Historic Leadership Training workshops. In the years since then, workshop attendees have been enthralled by Getty's insight and wit.

From the moment Getty enters the room, he IS Abe Lincoln, captivating the audience with his vast knowledge of one of our country's greatest leaders. "Jim's 'surprise visit' as President Lincoln is the highlight of Tigrett Corp.'s executive leadership workshops, and even the seasoned business executive suspends belief as he is caught up in a press conference with the 'President,' who just stepped from the pages of history," explains Everett Ladd, President of Tigrett Corp.

Gary Kross, one of Gettysburg's most popular Licensed Battlefield Guides, just celebrated his 20th year of teaching Tigrett's workshop attendees. Kross's vivid battlefield recreations add a touch of realism to each tour, as part of the "Lessons from Lincoln" workshops.

Congratulations Jim, Gary and Tigrett Corp. on 20+ years together!

TIGRETT CORP.
HISTORIC LEADERSHIP TRAINING
215 RIDGEWOOD DRIVE, GETTYSBURG, PA 17325

About Tigrett Corp.—Founded in 1984 in the Washington DC area, Tigrett Corp. provides historic leadership training to government, private industry, and non-profit groups. Using case studies from history, classroom facilitation, movie clips, reenactors and site visits, Tigrett Corp. examines the lives and leadership styles of historic role models from Abraham Lincoln to Winston Churchill. The challenges these historic leaders faced remain familiar today—how to do more with less, how to inspire people working under tough conditions, how to empower others to adapt to a world of constant change. To date, over 6,000 managers have participated in this unique—and memorable—training.
